After a consultation with your therapist to identify your specific needs, you are treated to a focused massage using Swedish techniques with heavy hand. Our 60 minute sessions concentrate on one area of the body to bring you the relief you need. Our 90 minute session affords you the flexibility to incorporate a second focal point or just smooth things out with a full body massage.

MASSAGE THERAPY

Hot Stone

Hot Stone Massages are heat therapy applied through the beauty of nature. We deliver heat therapy through the use of river polished basalt stones heated to your preferred level of comfort. These stones will warm and relax your weary muscles while your therapist implements a soothing massage to melt away your aches and pains. Much like the forces of nature which created these wonderful stones, we will need time to prepare for your session. Please allow us at least 1-hour advance notice for this massage.

Maternity Massage

Recommended during your 2nd & 3rd trimester only. There are many changes going on in the life of a mother-to-be. One of these is the constant shifting of body posture as a pregnancy comes to term. This often results in new and uncomfortable pains and strains on the muscles keeping you standing upright. Maternity massage is a gentle and soothing style of massage aimed at treating all of the muscles which are working overtime as your little one gets ready to join the world. Book your session today for some much deserved 'me time' and relief.

Craniosacral Therapy

With a pressure of 5g (the weight of a nickel), your therapist will use a series of holds for the bones of the skull, spine and their connective tissues to promote a relaxation response of the central nervous system. This is a very gentle modality which is ideal for clients suffering from migraines, insomnia and anxiety.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES

Reiki

Reiki is an ancient and sacred healing art that enables a deeply meditative and healing experience for the body, mind and spirit. Through focus and intention, the energy work of Reiki brings balance to the Chakras and energy systems of the body. This in turn promotes a balanced and peaceful state of being, enhancing the body's inherent power to heal. It is a wonderful service for anyone feeling energetically or emotionally off balance and in search of a moment to just 'be'.

$125/60 min - $165/90 min

Foot Reflexology

Using a series of predefined pressure points in the feet, Foot Reflexology uses acupressure to stimulate and relieve areas of the body related to their corresponding pressure points. This is a particularly useful modality for addressing matters related to internal organs and glands of the body that classic massage cannot. Best of all, you can book your reflexology as a full session or ask your therapist to incorporate some foot reflexology into any of our other services.
